RE: Being a guest on Radio Show Name

Dear Ms. Radio Show Host Name,

I am Yvonne Perry, a freelance ghostwriter and editor, award-winning author, podcast host, blogger, newsletter publisher, Internet marketing guru, and a keynote speaker who enjoys helping people. I would like to share my knowledge with your listeners.

I am a graduate of American Institute of Holistic Theology where I earned a Bachelor of Science in Metaphysics. I have been told that my presentation style is lovingly controversial and that it challenges people's belief systems in order to help them move past "Sunday School" mentality.

My articles on stem cell research, spirituality, and afterlife have been published on many online article directories such as ezinearticles.com. I could speak about any of these topics or if you prefer to take a business approach, I could share about my role as the owner/marketing manager of Writers in the Sky Creative Writing Services or we could talk about what I do as a ghostwriter and editor.

As an excellent communicator, who has earned her Distinguished Toastmaster Award (the highest designation in the Toastmasters public speaking organization), I am able to entertain your audience and contribute information about:

- Book marketing tips
- Inspirational and spiritual topics
- Online book marketing
- Podcasting, blogging, and social media (Web 2.0)
- Publishing a newsletter
- Starting and managing a freelance writing business
- Stem cell research

To help you learn more about what I have to offer your listeners, please review the enclosed tips sheet, my one-pager, and the list of questions (with answers) you might ask me during our interview. Thank you for considering me as your guest on your show. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yvonne Perry
